

ANTIGUA & BARBUDA

Citizenship by Investment Program (CIP)

Advantages

- Lifetime Citizenship to include family members
- Stable and democratic government
- Dependent children under the age of 26 can be included
- Dependent parents above the age of 58 can be included
- Strong legal and regulatory framework
- A beautiful location, a great quality of life
- Easy access: direct flights from New York, Miami, London, Frankfurt, etc.
- Travel mobility with an Antigua & Barbuda passport: visa-free entry to over 145 countries in the world, including Schengen Area, Singapore and UK
- Possibility to apply for an online visa for Australia
- Simple application process with an approval within 3 months of the submission date
- Quality real estate investment
- Attractive tax regime for inward investors

Requirements

- The applicant must be aged 18 years or older
- The applicant must not have a criminal record
- The applicant must not be the subject of a criminal investigation
- The applicant and family members must not be suffering from any contagious disease
- Make a qualifying investment that provides a significant economic contribution to the country

Investment Options

- Make a minimum contribution to the National Development Fund (NDF) of USD 100,000 (for family of 4 or less) or USD 125,000 (for family of 5 or more) – valid until October 31st, 2019
- Make an investment of at least USD 200,000 in one of the government-approved real estate projects – to be maintained for 5 years – valid until October 31st, 2019
- Make an investment of a minimum of USD 1,500,000 directly into and eligible business
- Each option is also subject to government processing and due diligence fees for the applicant and each qualifying dependent, plus legal fees for the application

Process (between 3-4 months)

- Fast and Simple processing procedure
- Payment of legal fees, due diligence fees and 10% of government processing fees upon application
- Upon receipt of a 'Letter of Approval' the balance of the fees shall become due
- Complete the NDF, real-estate or business investment
- Once the certificate of registration is issued, applicant and adult dependents must visit Antigua & Barbuda during the 5-year period after acquiring the nationality in order to be eligible to renew the passport