Hong Kong, July 2019 - Harvey Law Group, Asia's pioneer immigration firm specializing in investment immigration, presents its latest project involvement in the Commonwealth of Dominica with the Caribbean's most anticipated Citizenship by Investment opportunity under the five-star, world-renowned Secret Bay Resort: The Residences at Secret Bay.

Dominica, known as "The Nature Island of the Caribbean" and distinguished for its commitment to sustainable development, is the most environmentally-conscious island with an abundance of natural splendors: 365 rivers, the second largest boiling lake in the world, the longest hike-able trail in the Caribbean, waterfalls, hot springs, and black & white sand beaches. The unspoiled tropical preserve is also globally recognized for its citizenship-by-investment program as one of the world's best opportunities for citizenship investors with the Financial Times subsidiary Professional Wealth Management naming Dominica the “World’s Best Country for Second Citizenship” two years in a row.

Set on 33-acres of pristine jungle-meets-ocean land, the 42 villas and villa estates that comprise The Residences at Secret Bay feature 1,356 -5,182 square feet of indoor and outdoor living space and lot size ranging from 3,557 -32,290 square feet. The architecture and interiors thoughtfully reflect the pristine Nature Island, embracing casual coastal elegance with stately modern amenities, generous floor plans consisting of indoor and outdoor living spaces, fully-appointed gourmet kitchens, tropical hardwoods, private plunge pools, outdoor showers, as well as hammocks and daybeds.

The Residences at Secret Bay is Dominica’s only citizenship-by-investment (CBI) project offering completed villas for immediate purchase with demonstrated rental demand and a competitive exit strategy. Pricing for The Residences at Secret Bay range from USD 218,000 per share for citizenship investors to USD 1,220,800 USD for individuals seeking full ownership of an under-the-radar, sustainable luxury Caribbean vacation home.
