Acceptation under EB-2 National Interest Waiver for Airline Pilots is now confirmed!

29 March 2022

Good day,

Some good news and one bad news.

I am extremely happy to announce that we just got our first approval for a commercial pilot under the US EB-2 National Interest Waiver program in less than 3 months after submission. No need to say how glad we are and permit us to say to all the lawyers that said it was impossible and that such a petition will never be approved - we were right!

A special thank you to the whole team is in order, especially to Lorenzo in Miami and Zoie in Hong Kong for all the hard work done which is finally paid off. Same goes to the whole team in Hong Kong who spent so much time researching the subject that we were able to develop an expertise that has now been endorsed by the USCIS.

Throughout this journey, I have been asked numerous times why HLG has decided to offer this service to Pilots and my answer is always the same. "It's personal".

It's personal because my own son is currently studying to become a pilot and I wanted to make sure to open as many doors as I could for him once he gets his license - even though he has a long way to go, I know...

It is also personal because I live in a district called Discovery Bay in Hong Kong where the better half of the population is made up of Pilots and their families, many of whom I am close friends with. As a result, I have witnessed the devastating effect the pandemic has had not only on the industry but their daily life and told myself that there must be a way to help them. Despite all the deniers, HLG found a way.

As an Immigration Law Firm, it is our job, I believe, to opt for something other than the "usual path" and not stick to the status quo, no matter what other law firms may think. We understand that in an increasingly unpredictable world, new problems require new solutions which is why HLG is and has always been an innovator (and the last 30 years is nothing short of proof). Thanks to this ethos, we are delighted to be able to say that "we did it again".

Now, for the bad news, as many of you know, we adopted a risk sharing policy when it comes to our professional fees and we will of course respect the mandates that have been signed however, we will be reviewing said policy in the days or week to come to and most likely go back to our normal price policy for new mandates. Hence, if you are still hesitating to apply, there is no time like the present.

On this, my very best regards,

Jean-Francois Harvey
